

Southeastern Association for the Continental Tradition 3rd Annual Meeting

New Directions in Continental Philosophy

New College of Florida, April 8–9, 2022

This year's conference is hybrid in-person/via Zoom. Friday, April 8 sessions will take place in ACE 239, and Saturday, April 9 will take place in HCL 7. Please email cnoble@ncf.edu for Zoom links and/or more information. All times are Eastern Daylight Time (UTC-4:00).

Friday, April 8, ACE 239

12:20 Welcome from the Organizers

Panel 1: Temporal Experience and the Self

12:30–1:10 Rachel Elliott (Brandon University): “The Future Crossed Out: Exploring the Impact of Trauma on Protentional Expectation” Zoom

1:10–1:50 Michael Reger (University of Sheffield): “A Life Lived on the (Web) Page; Paul Ricoeur and Understanding the Contemporary Self,” Zoom

1:50–2:30 Daniel Kim (University of York [UK]): “Perceiving Time From a Merleau-Pontian Viewpoint” Zoom

15-minute break

Panel 2: Knowledge and Wisdom

2:45–3:25 Ian Hosbach, (UNC-Charlotte): “Disciplinarity and (In) Transitive Passing,” Zoom

3:25–4:05 Shane Epting (Missouri University of Science & Technology) “Continental Philosophy for the City: The Role of Wisdom in Shaping Urban Life” in Person

15-minute break

Panel 3: Futurisms

- 4:20–5:00 Landon Frim, (Florida Gulf Coast University): “The Future of Futurism in Continental Philosophy,” Zoom
- 5:00–5:40 Justin Simpson (University of Georgia): “Reclaiming our Future: Becoming-Through-Death and Gift Giving,” Zoom

Saturday 4/9, HCL 7

Panel 4: Subjectivity and Affirmation

- 9:30–10:10 Renxiang Liu (Tsinghua University): “The Revival of Subjectivity? Towards the Overcoming of Ontological Monism”, Zoom
- 10:10–1050 Ingrid Albrecht (Lawrence University): “Nietzsche’s Eternal Recurrence and the Ideal of Unconditional Affirmation”, Zoom

10-Minute break

Panel 5: Undergraduate Presentations:

- 11:00–11:30 Rebecca Pincus (Florida Gulf Coast University): “When Epistemic Injustices occur from our own making: an exploration of imposed limitations of sexual violation,” in person.
- 11:30–12:00 Riley Bedell (New College of Florida): “Unpaid Labor, Social Reproduction Theory, & Capitalism’s Oppressive Contradiction,” in person.
- 12:00–12:30 Jared Blalock (Florida Gulf Coast University): “Vulnerability, Injury, Responsibility in Butler’s Giving an Account of Oneself” in person.

Lunch 12:30–2:00

Panel 6: Interpreting the History of Philosophy

- 2:00–2:40 William Konchak (University of Iceland): “Gadamer’s Sympathetic Reading of Plato: Possibilities for the Future of Continental Philosophy” Zoom.
- 2:40–3:20 John Garner (University of West Georgia): “Henry Corbin’s Mundus Imaginalis and the Orientation of Perception,” in person.

15-minute break

Panel 7: Embodied Experience, Emotions, and Ethics

- 3:35–4:15 Robert Minatel (University of Guelph): “What is it to Play Music Together? Reflecting on Joint Musical Experience Through Heidegger’s Concept of World,” Zoom
- 4:15–4:55 Carter Hardy (University of Tampa): “Extended Emotions and Ethics,” in person
- 4:55–5:35 Peter Westmoreland (University of Tampa): “Handedness and Oppression,” in Person.